THE TIGERS OF 1954

The Detroit Club of 1954 will be fashioned from a squad of 44 players, consisting of 18 pitchers, 4 catchers, 12 infielders and 10 outfielders. Officially, there are only 3 catchers listed on the club roster but bonus player Frank House, who will work out at the Lakeland training base, on accumulated leave days, is expected to obtain his discharge from the army and rejoin the club in April.

Approximately half of those due to report at Lakeland will be making their first appearance there. The list includes Bob Miller, Reno Bertoia and Al Kaline, signed to Detroit contracts during the 1953 season, who as bonus players must remain on the club Roster for two years.

Among the pitching prospects, the records at Buffalo of Paul Foytack (13 and 10); Frank Lary (17 and 11); and Milton Jordan (12 and 1), are likely to result in their being given every opportunity to graduate to the parent club. Bill Tuttle, outfielder, making his second appearance at Lakeland, is conceded an excellent chance to advance because of his defensive play at Buffalo, his speed on the baselines and his record of 75 RBI's. Thumbnail sketches of some of the newer members of the Tiger squad appear elsewhere in this book.

After a dismal start, the 1953 club remained in the cellar until late in July, when mainly as a result of the performance of Harvey Kuenn, at short, and Ray Boone, at third, it rose to sixth place. Kuenn's play won him the honor of "American League Rookie of the Year," by what was virtually a unanimous vote of the B.B.W.A.A.

In the opinion of General Manager Ruel and Manager Hutchinson, the 1954 organization should make a further advance in the club standings. Pitching should be better following the successful operation performed on Ned Garver, who throughout the '53 season was handicapped with a floating cartilage in his knee. Ned wound up with a 11 and 11 record, appearing, in spite of his condition, in 32 games.

Frank House's return from service should also make for improvement and if Freddy Hatfield can handle the second base job, to which he was assigned late in the '53 season, the Tiger defense will likewise be strengthened.

Several changes were made in the staff of the Detroit Baseball Company. At the close of the season Herold "Muddy" Ruel became general manager, succeeding Charley Gehringer. The latter, who wished to devote more time to his automotive business, agreed to remain with the organization in an advisory capacity.

Johnny McHale, who had been Ruel's assistant, became director of the minor league clubs, and Frank Contway, traveling secretary, succeeded Charles B. Martin, who will take over the newly created position of director of out-state ticket sales.

Lynwood "Schoolboy" Rowe, former Tiger pitching star, and Johnny Hopp were named as coaches.

Montgomery, Wausau, Bakersfield, and Jackson were replaced in the farm chain by Wilkes-Barre, Valdosta, Idaho Falls, and Greenville.

As in previous seasons, the home schedule calls for 14 night games. The starting time of these contests, however, has been moved up to 8:15 o'clock.

All at home and on the road games will be given "live" broadcasts with 35 of the contests at Briggs Stadium being televised. The TV program also calls for seven telecasts away from home, the first in the history of the club.

Van Patrick for the third successive year will give the play-by-play account on both radio and TV with Paul "Dizzy" Trout, veteran Tiger pitcher, as his assistant. The broadcasts will be carried over an out-state hook-up of approximately 35 stations.

TIGERTOWN

(Training base for Detroit Baseball Company Minor League Clubs.)

Situated at Lakeland, Florida, approximately a quarter of a mile from Henley Field, where the parent club works out, the camp has accommodations for more than 200 young players and is under the direction of John J. McHale, head of the minor league chain, and his aides James A. Campbell, Ralph E. Snyder, Jack T. Tighe and a staff of instructors and managers.

As Lodwick Field, Tigertown was formerly a British training school for aviation cadets. It has four (4) diamonds, a fieldhouse, a spacious recreation room and a dining hall in which 16,000 meals were served during the 1953 training season.

The camp will be open from March 2 through April 25.

Thumbnail Sketches of Tiger Prospects

● Right-handed Pitcher JAMES BUNNING, making his first appearance at Lakeland, has a B.S. degree from Xavier University, Cincinnati, where during the off-season, he coached basketball. Bunning got his start with the Richmond club, of the Ohio-Indiana League, in 1950; was with Davenport in 1951; Williamsport in 1952 and briefly with Buffalo, in 1953, before being assigned to Little Rock. He makes his home in Newport, Kentucky.

● ROBERT CRUZE, left-hander and a returning serviceman, is also a newcomer at the training camp. In 1951, his last season before joining the army, he had a 12 and 6 record with Little Rock. Previously, he was with Thomasville, Williamsport, Butler and Durham.

● RICHARD DONOVAN, purchased from Atlanta, has been in organized baseball since 1947. He resides in Quincy, Mass., where during the off-season he is an insurance broker. As a member of the Milwaukee club in 1951, he pitched two consecutive shutouts in the A.A. playoffs and then beat Montreal on five hits for a decisive game in the Little World Series. He joined the Crackers in 1953, after having had tryouts with the Boston Braves in 1950, 1951 and 1952.

● Pitcher PAUL FOYTACK is making a return visit to Lakeland, after a brief stay with the Tigers and a 13 and 10 record at Buffalo, in 1953. Appearing in 29 games, Foytack had 140 strikeouts in 177 innings and an earned-run average of 3.97. His home is in Thomasville, Georgia.

● MILO E. JOHNSON, right-hander, was purchased from the Little Rock club, of which he had been a member since 1947. Of Swedish-Norwegian-German descent, he was born in Manitowac, Wisconsin, but attended school in Watersmeet, Michigan, where he lives in the off-season. Johnson served in the air corps from 1942 to 1945. He had a record of 16 and 12 and an earned-run average of 3.82 with Little Rock, in 1953.

● FRANK LARY, alumnus of Alabama University, who pitched a no-hitter against Ottawa, and had a record of 17 and 11, with Buffalo, in 1953, is considered one of the better prospects for advancement at the training base. Before entering service, he had a 4 and 0 record, with Thomasville and a 5 and 2 mark, with Jamestown, in the season of 1950. His residence is in Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

● Left-hander BOB MILLER was signed to a Detroit contract, for a substantial bonus by Scout George Moriarty, who also brought Shortstop Harvey Kuenn and Pitcher Billy Hoeft into the Tiger fold. An outstanding athlete in Chicago, Miller as a straight "A" student in high school, was awarded a four-year scholarship at Yale University. However, he elected to enroll at Northwestern University in 1953. After joining the Tigers, in June, Bob appeared in 13 games where he had a record of one victory and two losses. Miller makes his home in Berwyn, Illinois.

● Catcher WALTER STREULI is the youngest player on the Detroit roster. Born in Memphis, he attended Southwestern University. He is also making his first visit to Lakeland, with but one year of pro ball with the Montgomery club as his experience.

● JOHN E. BAUMGARTNER, native of Birmingham, Alabama, although on the Buffalo roster, was given a chance to work out with the Tigers at Lakeland, in 1953. Brought up to the parent club, in April, Baumgartner played third base in seven games. Optioned to Buffalo, he later transferred to the Montgomery and Little Rock farm clubs. There is a likelihood that he will be tried out in the outfield, at Lakeland.

● Infielder RENO BERTOIA, one of three bonus players signed by the Tigers in 1953, was brought to America, from his birthplace in St. Vito, Italy, when he was two years old. Bertoia lives in Windsor, Ontario, across the river from Detroit, where he attended Assumption High School, before going to the University of Michigan for one semester.

● FRANK BOLLING, who will be trying out for the second base position, is a brother of Shortstop Milt Bolling, of the Red Sox. He is the holder of two degrees from Spring Hill College, in Mobile, his winter residence. In 57 games at Buffalo, last season, Bolling had a .318 batting average. In his first time at bat with the Bisons, he hit a three-run homer.

● Infielder HARRY JAMES BRIGHT was drafted from the Charleston, W. Va. Club, at the minor league gathering, at Atlanta, in December. With the Southern Association Champions, last season, Bright had 14 home runs, 5 triples and 21 doubles for a batting average of .295. During his pro career which began in 1946, Bright has appeared in the catching, third base and outfield positions, as well as at second base. He was player manager for the Janesville, Wisconsin State League in 1953. His home is in St. Mary's, Kansas.

● CLARENCE HICKS, a switch-hitter, has been a shortstop since he entered organized baseball, in 1944, but with Harvey Kuenn having that job firmly nailed down, he will probably be given a chance to work out at second base. Hicks has been a member of both the Phillies and the Dodger farm organizations. With Buffalo, in 1953, in 147 games, he hit for a .295 average and had a fielding mark of .961.

● CHARLES S. KRESS, first baseman, drafted from the Rochester Club, at the Minor League meetings, in December, has worn the uniforms of the Cincinnati and White Sox Clubs, during his career, which began in 1940. With Rochester last season, he had 25 home runs and a batting average of .317. Considered a capable fielder, Kress is pretty likely to remain on the roster as insurance for the first base spot. He lives in Cheltenham, Pa., and sells automobiles during the off-season.

● KEITH E. LITTLE, first baseman, a Grandville, Michigan product, who makes his home in nearby Grand Rapids, attracted considerable attention at Lakeland, last spring, where he was allowed to work out with the Tigers, when a member of the Buffalo club. As a Bison, in '53, he hit four home runs in a doubleheader and another on the day following. In 91 games for Montgomery, he had 45 RBI's. Transferred to the Wilkes-Barre club, at the close of the season, Little was traded to the Tigers for Pitcher Ted Kapucinski.

● FREDERICK GERRARD FLEMMING, outfielder, is a native of Woodstock, New Brunswick, Canada. He is a graduate of Bowdoin College and has had one year of pro experience.

● ALBERT KALINE, is the third of the bonus players signed by the Tigers in 1953, who under the regulations must remain on the Tiger roster for two full seasons. An all-around athlete at Southern High School, in Baltimore, his birthplace, Kaline who in three years of high school play, hit for a .427 mark and had a total of 48 stolen bases, was sought after by several major league clubs and signed to a Detroit contract after payment of a substantial bonus. Coached by Charley Gehringer, in the 1953 Hearst National Finals, in New York, Kaline was awarded the most valuable player award.

● WILLIAM B. TUTTLE, outfielder, is returning to Lakeland for another chance, after a satisfactory performance at Buffalo, in 1953. Born in Elmwood, Illinois, Tuttle attended Bradley University, for three and one half years. In 1952, he appeared briefly in the Tiger lineup. With Buffalo, last season, he showed improvement in the outfield, drove in 75 runs and had a batting average of .276. His address during the off-season is Elmwood, Illinois.

CLUB LEADERS IN 1953

Harvey Kuenn in addition to being chosen "American League Rookie of the Year" by the B.B.W.A.A., led the club in the number of games played (155), hits (209), two-base hits (33) and total bases (262) and was tied with Ray Boone in runs scored (94).

Boone topped his teammates in r.b.i.'s (114), homeruns (26) and three-base hits (8).

Ray Herbert appeared in the most games (43), while Ned Garver lead in innings pitched with 198-1/3. Garver also completed the most games (13). Ted Gray had the most strikeouts (115) and walked 76 players.

The Tigers won and lost record (30-47) was identical at home and on the road. In extra-inning games played to a decision, the totals were 6 and 10. Shutouts were 2 and 7, while the night games resulted in 16 Tiger victories as against 30 losses and 2 ties. The doubleheader record was 6 and 6 with 11 split.
